EYES OF EUROPE

Looking at the current problems and challenges on a global as well as on a European level, one could easily fall into a state of powerlessness due to the complexity and seriousness of the situation, or follow the often quoted ostrich policy and just bury one's head in the sand.

The initiators of Eyes of Europe have already described the complex political, economic and cultural imbalances on our globe before the turn of the millennium and introduced them into the political discussion - imbalances that are now becoming visible in world affairs and are taking hold

The founders of EoE have created an international network of authors, who have brought their broad knowledge and skills to bear in this study to find answers to the most complex and difficult challenges of our time.

In more than twenty-three years of intensive research and development work, Eyes of Europe is a comprehensive study that shows ways to meet the multidimensional challenges facing mankind,

The documentary shows how these tasks that threaten to overwhelm humanity can be transformed into visionary and cosmopolitan answers, answers that inspire and reveal strong perspectives. In all these years, they have established a medium with a visionary spirit that enables Europe to reconnect with its original power, its wealth of creative and spiritual resources and the beauty of its complexity.

The Eyes of Europe programme shows ways and solutions how we can find our way out of the current geopolitical and intercultural paralysis process.

A jointly developing Europe has (still) a real chance to be an equal partner with other geo-political alliances in the midst of changing global constellations of influence and power - if it fulfills the mission it has been given by its cultural and historical disposition.

"The Eyes of Europe program shows strong similarities to neural networks in its consistency. Acquired -The knowledge (= communicated experience) that is acquired and made available is permanently and self-regulatingly synchronized with the latest global developments in teaching, science, research & technology, business and politics. The result is an auto-dynamic force / intelligence that communicates itself auto-actively" (Telco-Industries)
